Pat, All my information is on the Giannini - Weeks - Hatten/Hatten relationship. It comes primarily from one account written by James Richard Hatten of Sidney, Iowa, recorded in an account book sometime after May 13, 1859. The record was copied into a letter dated 1/7/1904, and later published in the Nebraska and Midwest Genealogical Record in July-Oct 1940. The early information in the record is quite detailed and somewhat accurate. The author records very little about his father's generation other than the birthplaces, names, and place of death. And he provides only birth information on his generation. The Hatten information is as follows:

"My G. Father Hatten was an Englishman, born, raised and married in England, and then with his young wife, came to this country and settled in Nelson County, Virginia. There were born to them six children, viz:--William (my father), James, John, Hane, Mary and Richard. When Richard was about four years old, and my father about 16, their mother died, and in less than a year it was discovered that my G. Father was engaged to, and about to marry a young woman yet in her teens, so the children all interposed strong and determined objections to having a young girl for a stepmother, so the father was compromised by the father giving the farm, stock, tools, and all the household goods and everything as it then stood, together with quite a sum of money for each of the children, for the old man was independently wealthy--he then took his young wife and a large amount of money and went to Kentucky, where he settled and raised a large family of children--I believe twelve."

"The first children never saw their father afterwards, and all this incident so upset and exasperated the children, that my father declared he would, and did, change the name of Hatten, and always afterwards spelled, so my father was alone responsible for changing "o" to "e" as the former was the original English way of spelling it, and is yet with all the old Hattens and in England."

"My father, William Hatten, died at Sidney, Iowa, in 1896, near the age of 96 years. James and John Hatten died in Alabama, victims of the late intestine war as thousands of others did. Jane and Mary died in Ohio, the latter never married. Richard died in Kanawha County, West Virginia. All except Mary had families."

Most of Hattens traced to William Hatten (1800-1860)

By LOIS HATTEN WEST

William Hatten was born January 1, 1800, in Nash County, North Carolina. He died in Winn Parish in 1860. He was the father of 18 children. Having married a Choctaw Indian princess, Frances Lucretia Lott (called Patsy) in Mississippi around 1823, it is believed he left Mississippi in 1838-39. His next known whereabouts was about 1840 in Ouachita Parish, Louisiana, which became Jackson Parish, after Jackson Parish was formed. He established a homestead in Jackson Parish on Indian Creek. By 1840 he had seven sons and two daughters. When his youngest son, William, was born, his wife, Patsy, died. The long trip to Louisiana and the hardships endured including cutting a road by ax from Vernon, Louisiana to Indian Creek created a drain on the entire family. It would have taken days to reach Monroe to obtain a casket for his wife, so William took his newly bought wagon bed and built from it a casket. Her name was inscribed by her sons, Presley, Absolum, and

Lewis, on a birch tree near her grave, and remained visible until the tree decayed from age.

Soon after her death, William moved to Winn Parish, near Fellowship Church, northwest of Sikes. There he married Anna Nettles. In the years that followed, they had nine children. He became the first Coroner of Winn parish.

The children of his first marriage to Patsy Lott were: Oldest, name unknown; Presley Hatten; Absolum R. (Bud) Hatten; Lewis Lamkin Hatten; Peter Hatten; Lawrence Hatten; Martha (Patsy) Hatten; Sarah Hatten; and William M. Hatten. The children of his marriage to Anna Nettles were: James Lamkin Hatten; Isham R. Hatten; Unnamed (died in infancy); Lucrita A. Hatten; Louisia (Boob) Hatten; Buddy (Ishman) Hatten; Nancy Jane Hatten; Armindia Hatten; and Frances Ann Hatten. Most of the older generation in Winn Parish remember Francis Ann as "Aunt Frank Willis," as she was married to Norval Willis. My great-grandfather was Absolum. He married Elizabeth Crumpton. My grandfather was William H. Hatten and was married to Adaline Cornett, and they had four children. My grandfather died when my father, William Joel, was only 13 years old. The oldest of my grandfather's children was Albert R. (Bud) Hatten, who married Mary Griggs. Another son, Louis Walter Hatten, married Sarah Jane Parks, and a daughter, Mary Hatten married J.W. Campbell. My father, William Joel, married Emma Ann Erskine. My fathers brothers and sister and their families, I remember well. There were some that were very colorful.

My father, William Joel, was born in 1874 in Winn Parish into a family of farmers, as were he and his brother, Walter, who died at age 39. William Joel farmed in Winn and Franklin Parishes, while he and his wife, Emma, raised their eight daughters. My father was a man of great principle, as were his brothers and sisters. Their word was their bond, and once a promise or agreement was made with family or neighbors, it was carried out. Honesty and dependability were the things he taught his children. He was a family man. He was also very close to his sister and brothers.

I know he must have been disappointed that he did not have a son. He always told his daughters that he wouldn't give one of his girls for a dozen boys, but he was especially pleased when he had grandsons. He loved all his children and grandchildren, but the boys were extra special.

It was always a big treat for us to visit Uncle Walter and Aunt Sarah Janes home. They lived in Sikes and we thought of Earl and Alma as being city children.

When we made a trip to Winnfield to see Aunt Mary and Uncle Billie Campbell, Minnie and Marshall, we rode the train. That was a special treat.

After my father retired, he and my mother moved to West Monroe, where they resided until his death in December, 1951. My mother, Emma Erskine Hatten, who is ninety-seven years of age, still resides in West Monroe.

Dear Patricia,

Thanks so much for your help! As promised I have enclosed the article on the Hattens from the Sikes Historian. I am headed that way (Sikes, LA) tomorrow for a family reunion and I hope to gather more information on the Hattens. I have also enclosed a copy of ~~of~~ a page from the deed book of Nash County, North Carolina - do you think these are the same people?

Since the name "Lamkin" is recurring I would think they are the same.

I look forward to corresponding with you in the future and again, thanks for the help.

Sincerely,
Shirley Bokorney

Dear Pat,

THANKS! That takes the HATTENS back another generation! I should thank you too for making me type all of my Hatten notes! (enclosed) I turned the Hatten research over to my brother-in-law a couple of years ago, and haven't done more than analyze what he has turned up. Meanwhile, he got sidetracked in recording the cemeteries of STONE COUNTY MS, which he has just completed. Now the typing begins! Then the printing.

Are there any names you want me to look for among the Stone Co tombstones? It may be a while before he can publish his tome.

I have speculated on the family of Lewis Lamkin Hatten...except for the exact birth dates which are annotated. Hardy didn't seem to belong to anyone else in the county, and since I don't have the 1830 Census on which he appears, I have no idea when he was born.

Anything that you find pertaining to anyone in the papers I sent, will be greatly appreciated.

There is another UNDERWOOD in NC I came across during my LAND research. ELIZABETH LAND, dtr of JAMES LAND, married 17 SEP 1821 SAMUEL FIELDING UNDERWOOD in Haywood County NC. MISS CARLA JANE LEDFORD, 3343 Virginia Drive, Titusville, FL 32780, is a descendant, and has speculated that ELIJAH UNDERWOOD is the father of S F.

S F and Elizabeth had MARCILLA MAGDALENE UNDERWOOD (24 JUL 1833 NC-9 JUN 1932 Andrews, Cherokee Co NC) who married ALLONSO ALLEN 26 JUL 1852 Haywood Co NC. Two generations from this marriage wound up in Athens, McMinn Co TN.

The only THEOPHILUS WILLIAMS I have in my notes is one in the 1600's and indexed in the NSCD XVIIth Century. However, there are plenty of WILLIAMS in my HATTEN notes. Do you recognize any of them? My Paul Williams' father, ISAAC, was a Capt in the Creek Indian War of 1812, was wounded and thereby a pensioner. He lived with his children until his death. Paul's sister married NATHAN PITTMAN.

I did copy the WILLIAMS tombstone inscriptions from Friendship Cem in Columbus, MS which are not typed, but if you think they will help you, I will be glad to send you my notes.

My TYLER family came from Orangeburg area of SC...Sarah ..Absolum, Jr + SR. The BLAYLOCKS were early in Pike + Lawrence Counties MS.

Mary B Warren has the right idea. She goes into courthouses, etc not with a pen and paper, but with a small but powerful camera! No room for error there. She can transcribe at leisure!

Who is SUE JOHNSON ROUSE? I have corresponded with DORIS CROOM OUTLAW of Kinston, NC, who wrote THE CROOM FAMILY some years ago. Doris was interested in my COLLINS data - she had never tried to unravel them - nor would I have but for one piece of data I stumbled on. The name MAJOR CROOM is hard to overlook! And my COLLINS were absolutely full of Major Croom Collins!

You asked about my printer. It is the Epson MX100 - of 1981 vintage. Last summer I added Graphtrax + for the italics, sub + super script

as well as underlining.

For "only a few hundred dollars more" I can get script, Roman lettering, etc.

The FX80 + 100 have Graphtrax built in and are less expensive than this one. I really don't need the 15" carriage which is the difference in the 80 and 100. It might come in handy for large charts.

Thank you again for your interest and the data!

Good luck on your book.

Sincerely,

Ruth Land Hatten

Nolan Hatten, humanitarian

Nolan L. Hatten, a Pascagoula businessman who died over the weekend, was one of those solid citizens who got so much done behind the scenes.

He loved his community and its people, and all of his life he got things done that makes this a better community. He didn't hold any political offices, but he got results in so many activities — United Way, Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, First Baptist Church.

It was so appropriate that the United Way of Jackson County this year presented him the Humanitarian of the Year award. His concern for others and his dedication to doing what was right earned him that kind of recognition.

He retired in 1974 from his hardware business, "Breland and Hatten," but remained very active in community and church affairs. As a founder of the United Way, he was recently given the Humanitarian of the Year Award.

One of his most significant contributions to the community was to guide the school district during the turbulent years of integration, serving as president of the board. HATTEN

Myrtie Olivia Hatten passed away peacefully in her sleep on the morning of September 13, 2000, at Hearthstone Retirement Center in Conroe, Texas. She was preceded in death by her husband, Nolan Lamar Hatten, in May 1989.

She was born December 18, 1910, on Black Creek, Mississippi, to Willie and Nancy Ora Breland. While attending Perkinson Junior College in Perkinson, Mississippi, she met Nolan and they married in 1932. They then moved to Pascagoula in 1939 with their two young daughters and established the Breland & Hatten Hardware store on Canty Street, where she served as its business manager until their retirement.

Myrtie was also a homemaker. She enjoyed sewing, varied crafts, cooking, flower gardening and baking. She was known for the beautiful yard she and Nolan kept to please the eyes of those traveling down Pascagoula Street, and for the many pound cakes she loved to bake and give away for just any reason.

For many years she was a member of the Anola Woman's Club serving as an officer in several positions. She invested a lot of her time to the First Baptist Church in Pascagoula and served many years as a Sunday School teacher and on numerous committees.

Myrtie Hatten is survived by her two daughters, Nola Boughton of Conroe, Texas, and Juanese (Dude) Van Tassel and husband Wesley of Gig Harbor, Washington; five grandchildren, Stanley Boughton and wife Cindy of Salem, North Carolina, Lamar Boughton and wife Sherri of Georgetown, Texas, Heather (Boughton) Nevins and husband Tommy of Elkhart, Texas, Craig Van Tassel and wife Victoria of New York City, and Eric Van Tassel and wife Leigh of Cheyenne, Wyoming. There are two great grandchildren of Stanley and Cindy Boughton--Brittany and Andrew.

A service is to be held at the Holder-Wells Funeral Home of Moss Point at 10 a.m. on Saturday, September 16. Viewing will be from 9 to 10 a.m. preceding the service. Interment will follow at the Machpelah Cemetery.

Myrtie Hatten opened her home and her heart to many people. She offered a helping hand and a happy smile. She will be kept fondly in the memories of those who knew and loved her.

A B S A L O M L E W I S H A T T E N

Absalom Lewis Hatten was born 21 November 1781 probably in south-east Virginia; died 29 September 1853 in Harrison County, Mississippi; buried in the Hatten Cemetery, near Wiggins, presently Stone County (formerly Harrison County) Mississippi. Absalom may have been a son of Lewis Hatten, who died circa 1785 in Norfolk County, Virginia.

Absalom seems to have traveled with Lewis L. Hatten, son of the above mentioned Lewis Hatten. Absalom and Lewis L. Hatten were probably brothers.

On 18 June 1812 Absalom Lewis Hatten enlisted with the Georgia Militia, and served as a captain in the War of 1812. After the war he settled in the area of Telfair County, Georgia. On 19 July 1817 he married Dicey Wiggins, daughter of Jesse Wiggins Jr. and his wife, Barbara Watts. Dicey Wiggins was the granddaughter of Jesse Wiggins and his wife, Rhoda Lott and on the maternal side, granddaughter of John Watts and his wife, Judith. Dicey's birth and death have been given as 2 November 1809 and 9 October 1882. Her grave, with such dates, has not been found. However, in the Hatten Cemetery there is a grave that may be her's. The graves have been copied and the compiler has listed three graves, all under the name of A. L. Hatten. One has been identified as the grave of Absalom Senior, another as Absalom Junior and the third should be the grave of Dicey. This last grave should say "wife of" A. L. Hatten Sr., born 2 March 1800; died 9 October 1882, and as the death dates are the same it is probably the grave of Dicey Wiggins Hatten.

Abb L. Hatten was first located in Mississippi on the 1820 census of Covington County. In this listing the parents were between the ages of 26-45 (born 1775-1794) and there were two females under the age of ten (born 1810-1820). By 1830 Abb L. Hatten was located in Jackson County, where he settled on the Bluff Creek area. In this census he was listed as 40-60 (born 1770-1790); his wife listed as 20-40 (born 1790-1810); one female 10-20 (born 1810-1820); four females and two males under the age of ten (born 1820-1830). By 1833 Abb L. Hatten is listed on the Perry County Tax Rolls. In 1840 and 1850 he was again located in Covington County.
